

JPUN General Membership Meeting
Oct. 6, 2009

Meeting called to order by Tom Blyth at 6:35.

Tom made announcements about the Yahoo group for JPUN and that there is a new site for JPUN social networking that can be accessed via the Yahoo site.

Dennis Flierl from Riverside church announced that the church is having a picnic kick-off gathering on Oct. 18 at 12:30. The neighborhood is invited to attend.

David Marquardt from Denver Parks and Rec told Tom they are still planning to add benches, tables, trash receptacles and historic flagstone to the park in the next few months.

District One Police did not attend the meeting.

Treasurer Report

We have about $1200 – $1300 to end the year. Donations are still encouraged.

Social Committee

Esther announced that we are planning a holiday party in early December. A location is being investigated.

Tom passed out copies of the JPUN bylaws to be voted on. Tom reviewed the changes to the bylaws.

Voting ballots were passed out to vote on adopting the amended bylaws.

The vote was unanimous (12) in favor of accepting the new bylaws.

Safety Committee

Paul attended the last Commander's meeting – some of our district police have been helping with LODO muggings and Regis burglaries. The police have been informed of the problems in the rehab at 25th and Clay and are watching the site. One resident complained about a group in the park at 2 a.m. after the park closes. Several members advised her that she needed to call the police when it is happening.

Improvement Committee

Jerry announced that benches are going in to the RDT stops at 23rd and Clay and 26th and Clay. Denver Parks and Rec needs to be involved for a bench to go in at 23rd and Eliot.

Land Use Committee

Kari announced that the comments made about rezoning were sent on the city. The dates for the next zoning review is in November. Information is still being gathered by the rezoning committee. Final rezoning is scheduled for Feb. 2010.

New Business

Daren announced that there is one area that needs to be covered for distribution of the monthly newsletter.

Meeting adjourned at 7:25.
